MANUEL QUIROZ

Manuel Quiroz was born at home on 11th Street in Riverside on July 30, 1921. At the age of 90 years he holds on to the stories of the past to share with all. He served in WWII in the Europe campaign. In returning home, he married Connie Torres. He and Connie celebrated 62 years of marriage before her death. They had four children, Manuel Jr., Rose, Margie, and Albert. Mr. Quiroz was always volunteering and serving in many committees in Riverside. He served as assistance to City Council, The Riverside County Office of Aging, and very committed at The Villegas Center in providing an array of services. He is to be honored in December, 2011 for 65 years of his membership in The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.
